From The Sky

It Stands Out Like A Jewel

Beautiful Romick chapel of the United Methodist church in La Verne at 3205 D street has become a landmark in the Pomona Valley. A bride, recently married there, said, "I have flown over La Verne as an airline hostess, and the Chapel quite near my home, stands out like a jewel from the sky."

Visitors stop each week to take pictures.

Worshippers never cease to be lifted in spirit by the design which allows nature to flow inside through clear glass windows and directs the attention to a magnificent camphor tree just beyond the altar.

The chapel and nearby educational buildings were the outgrowth of the vision of members of the Methodist congregation back in 1959.

It was at that time a relocation committee was appointed, composed of Oscar Marshall, Dr. Carroll White and Dr. Robert Lills. Scores of members and friends made the new facility a reality on December 31, 1961 when Romick chapel was consecrated.

Reserve Fund Explanation Delays Action On Budget

A budget study session has been called for by the city council to seek information on funding of the city. The action was taken at Monday night's meeting when Councilman Ronald Rossitter questioned the reserve fund of the city budget.

He said he was "not satisfied" with the $65,000 in the reserve fund column and questioned what the reserve fund balance was.

Elwin Alder, city manager, said that since the city had several funds, it would be hard to say which was reserve and that was just a term and not exactly what it said.

Councilman James Christensen also questioned the term and the amount of money. He said he had tried for eight years to clarify some of the financing and had only learned (tonight) what was in the reserve fund.

Clifford Thomas, finance director, told the council members that as of April 30, the reserves, or as he called it, a cash balance, had $419,000 in it and as of July 1, 1968, $700,000.

He explained that the reserve balance and general fund are not the same; that the city operates on several funds and must project the needs ahead of time.

The councilmen were of the opinion that more explanation was needed and called for tabling the budget until a study session could be set up on Tuesday, June 24, at 7 p.m., council chambers, city hall, at which time the financing would be explained.

The vote was four to one with Councilman Max Hawkins dissenting.

Antiques Sought

Uplanders are encouraged to dig out their antiques and artifacts of the early years of the area and make arrangements to display them for the "Old Fashioned Days" celebration on June 26, 27 and 28.

The celebration is in observance of the first anniversary of the completion of the Kiosk and Town Center. For three days, Upland will turn the clock back and enjoy the "good old days" in free entertainment, bargains galore, displays and kiddie rides all through the concourse area.

Those wishing to get in on the act with their antiques and make the celebration a community effort are asked to make arrangements for their displays through the Chamber of Commerce, 982-8816.

COMFORT -- Young Jeff Skeels, 5, comforts his dog, Tisha, a 10 month old Great Dane, who just got her rabies shot and is waiting in line for her license. They were part of some 100 people who brought their dogs to the area rabies clinic held at the Police Department last week. The clinic was in conjunction with the purchase of dog licenses which are now due. Jeff had great sympathy for his dog; he knew what getting a shot is like. Tisha had no comment on the situation.

One Career Follows Another For Upland Woman

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

Most people are lucky to survive a single career, but Althea Correll has outgrown many careers in her lifetime, except one, which outgrew her, and that was rearing her three children, which was sandwiched in between a teaching career and a professional Girl Scouting career.

Her latest career is the Upland Travel Bureau which she runs from behind a cluttered desk with a constantly ringing phone.

However, she is serene no matter what happens, and laughs about the cluttered desk. To her it is organized, and watching her calmly search for and find just the right article for a particular phone call makes it believable. She terms her latest venture "very interesting and absorbing," but somewhat a paradox since she entered the business because travel was her hobby and she envisioned delightful trips here and there.

"However, now when I travel, it is always on business and while I enjoy it very much, I don't have time to be a tourist," she says.

TEACHER FIRST

Her first career stretches back to a small country school in Connecticut where she taught. Typical of the country school of its day, she taught all subjects and all grades.

After she "retired" to rear her two daughters and a son, and while her daughters were young, she became interested in the Girl Scout movement and gave many hours of volunteer help to the troops in which her girls were involved. She loved the camping and enjoyed the companionship of the girls.

Althea Correll

GIRL SCOUT WORK

It was natural that when she found she must return to full time work, she chose the Girl Scout organization, where she became a professional worker. One of the highlights of this career, she recalls, was working with Mrs. Herbert Hoover, who was an active participant

"Mrs. Hoover was a delightful person to know, and she was a perfect match for the president. He was a mining engineer and she was a geologist.

"We were sitting on a rock one day idly pushing dirt around with a stick when Mrs. Hoover observed that she hoped during her lifetime she would find time to spend one year studying one cubic inch of earth. However, her ambition was never realized as she died soon after that," Mrs. Correll reflected,

"The Girl Scout movement in those days held a great deal for girls and it was a tremendous thrill for me to see girls develop and go on to other experiences. I saw them grow from tiny Brownie Scouts through Girl Scouting and then marriage. I still correspond with many of my girls," she says.

TRAVEL BUG BITES

It was while working with the Girl Scouts that the travel bug bit her. Her work took her many places, including Kansas, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Maryland and California. Her sister became ill and needed a warm climate, so it was decided that she would "retire again and bring her sister to California, in hopes the climate would be beneficial.

This time she planned

Two Way Street

Now that graduation is over, many youth will be looking for jobs. Some will be seeking permanent ones and others just for the summer.

What is the outlook for young workers in the area seeking a job? According to a check of the area it is good.

However, getting a job and holding it will require cooperation between the youth and the employer. The employer is willing to train the inexperienced for the job if the youth is willing to become responsible for his training.

There are some rules to follow when holding a job that mean giving up some of the things known in the youth world as "doing your own thing."

For instance, long hair is fine for going to school and as long as parents or teachers don't object, but in the work world, a hair cut is necessary.

Would you want your food served by a long haired boy or girl? Or, would you buy something from a long hair in the store? How about the danger of long hair in the factory? One need not be reminded about what would happen if the hair was caught in a machine.

Working requires that one be on time, do the work and earn his pay. This takes discipline. Employers do not have time to "baby sit" employees.

On the other hand, the employer must be willing to take the time and the investment of money to train the young and inexperienced so they may become good employees.

This year they seem to have taken the initiative in this area and are training youth on the job.

There are jobs for those who will seek them and are willing to trade some of their "folkways" for the discipline of the work world.

What's Wrong?

Flag Day was "observed" in a slightly noticeable manner, Saturday June 14.

Perhaps this could be considered as an after-thought on the matter-or an attitude which should exist 365 days a year in a period when it is considered "sophisticated" to abandon our time-honored traditions.

What's wrong with feeling proud when you see your country's flag? What's wrong with getting a little choked up?

There are those who will tell you that honor to the flag is out of style, is old-fashioned, is unsophisticated.

But taking pride in "Old Glory" . . . gathering an extra surge of courage from its bright, rippling folds. . . was not out of style at far-off places like Chapultepec and San Juan Hill and Chateau Thierry and Iwo Jima and Hill No. 875.

And it isn't out of style right here and now, either.

So go ahead. Lift your hat or put your hand to your heart when your nation's flag goes by. You're a better American and a better human being when you do.

to make her retirement permanent and happily enrolled in college to study writing and photography. She had some writing for magazines and generally enjoyed herself. Yes, this time her retirement was complete.

LIBRARIAN, TOO
But, she was wrong. Another career was begun when she became the children's librarian in Upland.

For nine years she encouraged boys and girls to become good readers. She started the pre-school story hour so they would become interested in reading at an early age. The story hour is still in operation.

"I had 42 pre-school youngsters in that musty old basement and I had to open the windows to keep them from smothering," she recalls.

A firm believer in good books for good readers, she started the library reading club which encouraged reading as many books as the children could manage.

"I was strict with them. After they had read a book, I required a written and very often an oral report. It was not unusual for my good readers to get through 18 books in record time," she says. She considers many of the children's books today as "mamby pamby" and is of the opinion that they do not have enough challenge.

Her Junior Rock Hound club was also popular and she was able to keep it alive for four years. Out of the group three boys went on to become mining or geological engineers. And some of her good readers became librarians.

MANDATORY RETIREMENT
Many of her good readers still come to see her or write to her. The reason for her "retirement" this time was that she had reached the age of 70, and this is the mandatory age for retirement.

Now firmly convinced she would take life easy and travel, she embarked on a two year tour of Europe. She had so much fun that she decided to come out of "retirement" and start a travel agency so she could help other people enjoy the fun of travel.

PLANS TOUR

In this career, she is working harder than ever before. In fact she is planning a 38-day escorted tour called "Gems of the South Pacific" which is scheduled for Nov. 7 to Dec. 14.

Highlight of the tour is several days at Mildura, New Zealand. One of the days there, Thanksgiving, a celebration with the granddaughter of William Chaffey will be held. Chaffey was one of the founders of Upland and Ontario, and when the brothers left this area, they went to Mildura and established a town similar to Upland.

In her "spare" time, she is involved in community activities. She is president-elect of Business and Professional Women; is on the board of the Upland Town Merchants Association; serves on the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce; is parliamentarian of Sister City; program chairman of the Chaffey Community Cultural League; secretary of Friends of the Library; and president of the Inland Literacy Council, which teaches English to illiterates and foreign-speaking people.

The Council is based on the philosophy of "each one teach one." She teaches one, who in turn teaches another, and so on. At the present time she is teaching a group of Korean students.

Mrs. Correll is reluctant to talk about "retirement" or any other "careers" at present. It looks like her present work is permanent. But -- there is always tomorrow.

What's Doing In Upland?

Our Sympathy

A bouquet of flowers for Howard Wickstrom who is sporting a sling with a broken right arm. He had a freak accident at the sixth grade skating party. While racing, he fell and his arm took the shock of it. He is fortunate that he can write with his left hand, but it is a handicap not to be able to do simple things like cut meat. We wish him a speedy recovery. Howard is the principal of the Baldy View School.

KSOM

The Rotarians did a traveling act last week when they took a tour of Radio Station KSOM. I was lucky to have been invited to their luncheon and tagged along on the tour to see how the other half of the media lives. It was very interesting with program director, Gil Boucher showing us the ropes. He is also responsible for the good music that soothes our ears as we travel on our ways. The programming that goes on is mainly done through a huge computer known as "Bertha" who clicks and clacks and switches her dials on split second electronic timing. Of course, she has to be told what to do, by the men in her life. She's not smart enough to know when to switch the dials on and off, so about nine men feed her eager electronic brain with all the news and music she can hold. She quickly eats it all up and asks for more. She does keep those men hopping. She is quite fascinating to watch as she goes through her routine.

One interesting highlight of the tour was a repeat play of City Manager Elwin Alder's evacuation speech given last January during the height of the floods. There was talk of re-playing it next December but many said no-thanks, no-repeats of any floods. Don Maloney, station manager and new Rotarian arranged the interesting tour.

Our Man In Washington

Fight Against Crime Off To Slow Start

By BILL KENNEDY

WASHINGTON -- "I pledge that a Nixon Administration will sweep the streets of Washington clean of these marauders and criminals and remove from this city the atmosphere of apprehension and fear that hangs over it."

So spoke Richard Nixon on June 22, 1968, in his bid for the GOP presidential nomination--at a time when third-party candidate George Wallace was bearing down hard on law and order and was coming on strong.

A year has passed since that speech and Mr. Nixon has been president nearly a half-year. What is the status of crime in the nation's capital today?

Violent crimes in this city, particularly homicides, are on the upswing and the graph takes a spurt about every weekend. But not many of the nation's lawmakers are willing to place any presidential blame at this early date--in fact, some say Mr. Nixon is moving as quickly as possible to carry out his campaign promise.

BUT KILLINGS in the city are on the rise. On June 8, four slayings occurred within a six-hour period, boosting the Washington homicide toll to 111 so far this year, compared with just 79 at the end of May last year.

Among the four murder victims was a 21-year old woman, stabbed to death in her home; a 21-year old Iranian student shot; a 15-year-old boy shot down on a street corner--an apparent motiveless crime--and a 69-year old man stabbed to death.

During the same night a 15-year old girl was returning home from a neighborhood party when she was set upon by a gang of youths and raped repeatedly. Also during the same night two young women were abducted from a street corner by a gunman who drove them to a secluded area and raped them, and a 26-year old woman clerk was shot in the head and critically wounded while working in her office.

Washington newspapers treat crime news routinely, perhaps because it is so commonplace. They keep a box score of homicides like most newspapers run a box score of traffic deaths. And they log (in small agate type) crimes under the headings of "Assaulted," "Robbed," "Slain," a practice most newspapers use for routine fire and police calls, and the listing of the tides.

WHILE WASHINGTON city government is the responsibility of Congress, some of the lawmakers are remembering the Nixon speech of a year ago when he pledged to "make the District of Columbia an example to the nation of effective crime control."

But Sen. John McClellan of Arkansas, author of the "Safe Streets" law, said President Nixon is moving as quickly as possible to combat crime.

"Give the man a chance," McClellan said. "He can't wave a magic wand and stop crime overnight. He has asked for an appropriation with which to fight crime, and it's now up to Congress."

Sen. Alan Bible of Nevada who made law and order a strong plank in his re-election campaign, said he was hopeful the Administration and Congress would move quickly on the crime issue.

Congressman Harold (Bizz) Johnson of California, said he was "much concerned" about the crime problem, adding, "I favor releasing the funds for crime fighting as quickly as possible."

BETTER TRAINED and higher paid policemen, along with increased numbers, more speedy trials and better street lighting are objects of the war on crime.

Gas Company servicemen are rigorously trained in safe driving, first aid, and the maintenance of all gas appliances.

The tree climbing they learn on their own.

Rescuing cats is not a regular part of a Gas Company serviceman's job.

But, then, neither is helping stranded motorists. Or giving pregnant ladies cab fare to the hospital.

The thing is, our servicemen are the kind of guys that do those kinds of things. We don't mind. In fact, we encourage them.

They're out in the community so much they become a part of it. They want to help and people have come to expect them to help. Fine. But, some fairly strange things happen.

One day last summer, for instance, one of our servicemen chased a hit-and-run driver in his Gas Company truck.

Caught him, too. Our servicemen are like that. Determined.

Actually, what with the rescued cats and stranded motorists and all the rest, you might wonder how the work gets done. But somehow all the pilots get lighted, the burners get adjusted, the ovens get calibrated, the wall heaters get cleaned, and the gas dryers get checked. And right on schedule. Our servicemen really do a job.

Men, we salute you. Keep up the good work.

Museum Group Plans Party

The Chaffey Communities Cultural Center is sponsoring an Early California Garden Party on Sunday afternoon, June 22, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the George Harrison Whitney residence, 805 West 16th st., Upland. Donations to the Cultural Center Building Fund are $5 per person.

The Board of Directors has been aware of the need for a new building by the expanding interest that the community has shown in recent months. Classes from the various grades in the Upland and Ontario schools have come to the museum on field trips; cultural societies from sister cities have shown interest by holding business and social meetings in the museum; and visitors, both local and distant have been impressed with unusual, and authentic display at the museum, said a spokesman.

Many Uplanders take a great deal of pride and interest in this local enterprise, developed by a handful of tireless, energetic, local people who want to retain a heritage for the future generations. However, there are still too many Upland residents who are not aware of the available wealth of early California historical relics.

In the past month many troops of scouts, both boys and girls, have visited the museum. Pomona Chapter of DAR held their business and social meeting there last Saturday. Upland Noon Kiwanis planted shrubbery and landscaped both sides of the museum between the building and the walk. The Garden Section of the Women's Club planted marigolds for color around the base of the trees in the parking lot, he concluded.

Personalized Service Hallmark Of Hotel

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

He was going to be a lawyer or a foreign diplomat, but the Army interfered during his Pomona College days and he became an Army officer temporarily.

While serving his tour of duty he took a hotel management course to help fill some of the empty hours. When he was discharged, he headed back to Pomona to go onto graduate school and fulfill his ambitions, but a trip to Los Angeles to a Hotel Association Show, changed his mind and his life.

He met a man who talked him into going to Monterey to a resort hotel for six months. He did and decided then and there it was the hotel business for him.

FROM ARCADIA TO UPLAND

From Monterey he went to work for Walter Muller who owned the Westerner in Arcadia and in 1961 came to the Uplander as manager. The hotel at that time had 58 rooms and was three years old. Today it has 107 rooms and it's success is due to Lyman and his philosophy of quality and personalized service.

Ask anyone who has stayed there or gone there for a conference and they will tell you that genial, tall Ted, he's 6 ft. 4, takes a personal interest in his business and nothing is too good for the customer.

He gives that extra touch that spells comfort, and people keep coming back.

Lyman also finds time to take an active interest in the community and professional organizations of his business. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and on its board of directors. He also is chairman of the Fireballers, a go-getting group that brings new businesses in the chamber, and he was named Man of the Year by the Chamber in 1968. Lyman is a member of Rotary and serves on the board of directors as well.

On the professional level, he is a National Director of Master Hosts, and was recently elected to the California State Hotel and Motel Association's Board of Directors. Under his management, the hotel has won recognition in the national tourist guidebook put out by Mobil Travel News, of the Mobile Oil Co. It has been a four star hotel since the guide was started four years ago and is the only hotel in the area to be awarded this rating. It can not be bought, but is awarded on merit alone, after careful, unannounced inspections by trained field staff members.

WELCOME TO THE UPLANDER -- Genial Ted Lyman, manager of the Uplander Motor Hotel, greets the guests and makes them feel at home. His philosophy has made the hotel a favorite stopping place for the famous and the traveling public.

EVERY HOUR DIFFERENT

"In our business, every hour is different and sometimes dangerous," says Lyman who works a 24 hour day, 365 days of the year. He is always on call even if he's off duty.

He has been held up at gun point, halted attempted suicides and was once involved with a murder. He describes his work as "rewarding and frustrating," but with many more times of the former than latter.

"We deal in the intangibles and this presents a real challenge," says Lyman, who hosts about 100 conferences a year at the hotel. Economically, the hotel brings new dollars to the community and because of its quietness and pleasant surroundings, Lyman feels it is an asset to the community. While the hotel doesn't employ the largest staff in the city, in the competitive class, his hotel has the most employees.

When big Ted who is a native Californian, isn't overseeing the hotel, he is off deep sea fishing or hunting. He is also a swimmer having played water polo in college and he lists volleyball as keeping him trim. Looking toward the future, Lyman says, "We will continue the same personalized service, no matter how large we become."

This is his philosophy and he lives it.

Small Gifts Illustrate Aims Of New Officers

Highlighting the end of the 1968 and the beginning of the 1969 PTA session at Sierra Vista school was a speech given by Mrs. Briscoe Root.

Mrs. Root, the installing officer, punctuated her speech with small but appropriate gifts to each person on the new board. Mrs. Frank Smith, president, received a can of polish to set a shining example; Mrs. Fred Kramer, vice president, received a bottle of Joy-to remain joyful in helping out as needed; Mrs. Richard Dutton, secretary, a sponge-to soak up the activity taken at each meeting; Mrs. Myron Samalin, treasurer, a bottle of Windex-to see her way clear; Mrs. Gary Vollers, Historian, a box of Sure-Jell - to have everything jell into a permanent record, and Mrs. Robert Ransom, parliamentarian, received a can of Drano-to keep things running smoothly. LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS

BY LINDA NORRIS

An American tradition that has never waned - in fact, it has gained in popularity over the years and is enthusiastically received even in today's mod world - is the art of square dancing. There's nothing like a do-si-do to get one in the mood for enjoyment and with it goes country music. . . with this in mind, Cluffie Stone, one of the great country 'n western stars, has come up with a new LP, "Square Dance U.S.A." in which he does some of the day's favorite country tunes to a square dance beat. . . Included are The Unicorn, Something Stupid, Patter, Little Girl, That Old Black Magic, Gentle On My Mind and When Your Baby Smiles at You.

Wynn Stewart has a winner in his new Capitol album. . . Done to a well turn are such numbers as In Love, A Thousand Wonders, Tough Row to Hoe, I'll Die Tryin'.

Montclair-Upland Bid For Legion Bunting

ANOTHER BLAST is given by Upland Little Leaguer Jay Morton, who is fourth in the home run derby with four homers. He is on the Western Moulding team.

Mike Wise Named MVP Of Highlander Nine

UPLAND -- Senior catcher Mike Wise was named Upland High's most valuable baseball player at a recent Spring awards banquet.

Wise was named to the All-San Antonio League first team for the second year in a row and broke several school records for hitting and defense. He was also the league's top hitter with a .452 average.

Other awards presented went to Mike Bivens and Rick von Kleist (co-captains), Pat Wise (most improved player), Paul Katona (best pitcher), and Mike Wise (best hitter.)

tensen were given the co-captain award and Mark May was selected the most valuable and was the top hitter.

Steve Tarbell and Dave Hill were given the co-captain award for the freshman team while Gary Waldron was named the most valuable and Chris Carler the best hitter.

Mike Wise set a league record for doubles with seven and tied the school season record with 10. He broke the record for throwing out baserunners, catching eight in league and 12 over-all.

Katona was given a special award for tying the school shut-out record with two in league play.

The Montclair Legion team in second spot in the District 25 competition is still on the trail of the leading Ontario club.

Friday the Montclair club split a double header with Upland winning the opener 6-2 at Memorial Park with the aid of Paul Katona's strong pitching, and the Montclair team copping the night-cap 12-9.

In the opener, the Uplanders took advantage of Gregg Campbell's wildness to score four in the first inning, combining four walks with safety hit.

Then Coach Landon Moore brought on Ken Harrison in the third and the southpaw fanned the side in the first two innings he worked as he piled up nine - strikeouts.

Harrison also proved the point that pitchers can hit as he hit five for five in the second slug-fest.

Montclair's Legion team downed Upland twice Sunday by scores of 5-2 and 11-4 to up their season record to 9-3.

In the first contest Montclair staged a sixth inning uprising to get the runs across.

In the second contest, Ken Harrison went the route for Coach Landon Moore's Cavaliers hurling a three-hitter and whiffing nine.

Montclair put the game on ice in the first inning with seven runs on just three hits.

Western-Moulding-Skycrest Stage Foothill LL Thriller victory. U.B.L.'s Marty Thompson and Andy Watkins hit 2 singles each and Eric Peterson and Robert Fudge, 1 single.

Al's Enco scored 10 runs in their game with Sierra Lathing, allowing two runs to score. Tony Volpendesta, catcher, and Tom Trudeau each got a homer, while Leslie Lewis received a triple and Mike Carroll, who turned in some fine pitching, hit a double.

Doug Benes, Don Trudeau, Chris Stadler, and Tom Trudeau each were credited with singles. Tom Trudeau also made an unassisted double play at second base.

In the last of 4 scheduled games, Western Moulding and Skycrest Ford had a virtual tug-of-war in Saturday's exciting Foothill Little League play. After trailing 3 - 0 for four innings, W.M. batters came back with 4 runs in the 5th inning and 2 more in the sixth to take a 6-3 lead. Skycrest Ford came back with 4 runs in the bottom of the 6th to win by 7-6.

Steve Schiro and John Pignotti each had a home run, and a key play was made by Short-stop Ricci Borba in the top of the 6th, when he made an unassisted double-play with 2 runners on and 1 out. Borba had a double and a single, Tomas Gonzalez, double, Chris Hoffman and Chuck Magistro, each 2 singles, Pignotti, a single. Fort Marcy Due Saturday At Hollywood

Leading contenders for national honors in the grass racing division will be in battle at Hollywood Park Saturday (June 21) as the Inglewood track presents the inaugural running of the $100,000 Invitational Turf Handicap at a mile and one-half.

Rokeby Stable's Fort Marcy and Flag Is Up Farms' Eddie Cons - tantine's Petrone, both winners of $100,000 turf stakes, are expected to head the field for the unique event, which ranks as the richest race on the 1969 Hollywood schedule for grass specialists.

Invitations for the newest of Hollywood's five hundred granders were issued to 24 outstanding thoroughbreds, and in addition to 1968 Sunset Handicap winner Fort Marcy and 1969 San Juan Capistrano victor Petrone, the list of invitees includes Hasty House Farms' Niarokos, Gustave Ring's Majetta and Barney Lobel's Taneb.

Fort Marcy, who was assigned 124 pounds, is expected to lead a parade of Eastern-based stars who will fly to Hollywood Park for the Invitational. In two previous appearances on the West Coast, Fort Marcy accounted for the $118,500 Sunset at Hollywood Park last season and took the runner-up spot in the $125,000 San Juan Capistrano last April.

Ovens Clean Themselves

A new line of gas appliances -- ovens that clean themselves -- is winning enthusiastic acceptance from Southland homemakers, according to G.W. Neilson, Eastern Division sales manager for the Southern Counties Gas Co.

In the last week of a two-month Spring Range Campaign -- April 15 to June 15 -- Neilson said early sales reports from more than 1,000 participating dealers indicated a very successful marketing effort.

As a part of the gas industry's national program to promote the new ranges, the campaign has been conducted by local appliance dealers, national and local manufacturers and the gas company.

The theme of the local campaign has been, "Heard a Clean Story Lately?" Extensive advertising and point-of-sale information explained the time and money-saving features of the new ovens.

"Although results of the program have not yet been tabulated, we know the 'self-cleaning' concept has been well accepted by the range-buying public," the sales manager said.

A recent survey by the American Gas Assn. shows that 97 percent of the women contacted know about "ovens that clean themselves." Gas company statistics show 82 percent of Southern California homemakers prefer to cook with gas.

There are two types of automatic cleaners on the market. In one, a high oven temperature is used to "burn off" food spatters. In the other, a specially coated oven liner causes food stains to continually "burn away" at normal baking and broiling temperatures.

The ranges are widely available in many styles and colors. Some of the well-known firms that are manufacturing the new line of appliances are Caloric, Magic Chef, Modern Maid, Roper, Tappan, Hardwick and O'Keefe & Merritt.

Traditional camp activities such as cookouts, campfires, hikes, nature crafts, star study and archery will be part of the experience during these special sessions.

All nine sessions during the season will provide all of the above activities to a lesser degree for those not interested in the special interest groups.

A well trained staff of 37 to 40 adults will guide the girls in their activities. A registered nurse is in attendance at all times. Miss Karen Koeder, director of camping for the council will direct the camp again this year.

Five "City Gypsy" Day Camps will be held in areas close to home. Girls will be picked up by busses in the morning and returned in late afternoon. Pomona Valley Community Hospital

Non-Profit—Community Owned. Dedicated to provide modern, specialized hospital service at reasonable cost consistent with good quality care.

WE HEAR MUCH TODAY ABOUT THE HIGH COST OF HOSPITAL CARE. BUT TO BE JUDGED FAIRLY, OUR EFFICIENCY MUST BE MEASURED IN LIVES SAVED AND PATIENTS RESTORED TO HEALTH, NOT MONEY SAVED. EVERY FAMILY WANTS THE BENEFITS OF MODERN MEDICAL SCIENCE AND SPECIAL CARE WHEN A LOVED ONE SUFFERS A SERIOUS ILLNESS OR INJURY. WE HAVE AN INVESTMENT OF $35,000 PER PATIENT AT PVCH TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE HOSPITAL FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT.

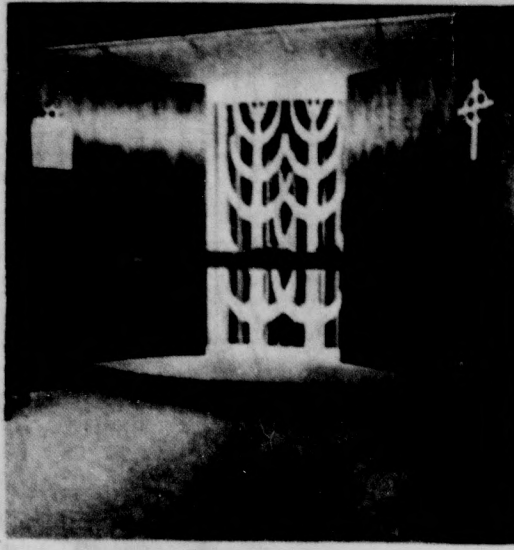

FOR THESE REASONS, HOSPITAL CARE IS EXPENSIVE

... and experts estimate that hospital costs will continue to rise. But modern specialized hospital care does make shorter illnesses, fewer complications, better health and longer life.

Ownership of good health insurance is your best safeguard against financial disaster when a serious health problem strikes. It is your best bargain today and both short-term and major medical coverages are reasonably priced. Insurance paid for 90% of patients expenses at PVCH during 1968.

Our Building Program

In 1967-68 we completed a 320-car parking lot North of the Hospital on East Willow Street which gave us adequate parking space for the first time in many years.

Our constantly expanding population in Pomona Valley necessitates that we expand the Hospital facilities to meet the increasing needs of our citizens. Our future plans will include a new Emergency Room, a new Cardiac Care Unit of 16 beds, a new medical and surgical Intensive Care Unit of 18 beds, a new infection unit as well as additional patient beds, a new Auditorium and educational unit, additional business office space, additional administrative office and storage space, and a new mechanical room. The estimated cost of this project is $2,500,000. We still owe $1,705,000 on the 1963 and 1965 construction projects.

WE ASK YOUR DONATION TO HELP PAY FOR FUTURE EXPANSION OF YOUR COMMUNITY HOSPITAL. YOUR GIFT IS TAX EXEMPT AND HELPS TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL BEDS SO WE CAN CONTINUE TO MEET THE NEEDS OF OUR GROWING AND THRIVING COMMUNITY. OUR CITIZENS ARE ENTITLED TO BE HOSPITALIZED WHEN NEEDED—NOT PLACED ON A WAITING LIST!

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF A LARGE, SPECIALIZED HOSPITAL TO YOU? Medicine is so complex today that it requires a highly skilled team to give high quality care, and much of this is centered in the hospital area. To keep progress with medical science, hospitals have had to increase in size, add more skilled personnel, highly technical equipment, and more specialized services. A well-qualified physician specialist must head these services and he must have well-trained nurses and other ancillary specialists and the facilities of a large hospital before he will establish a practice in a city. In a large specialized hospital there are large numbers of doctors, registered nurses, and technical employees routinely on duty. This means greater patient security when expert services are needed for a complicated case. A large hospital can afford to buy expensive and highly technical equipment, to employ full-time radiologists and pathologists, and to have doctors on duty 24 hours per day. Nurses specialize in different types of cases, such as medicine, surgery, obstetrics, and pediatrics; thus become more proficient.

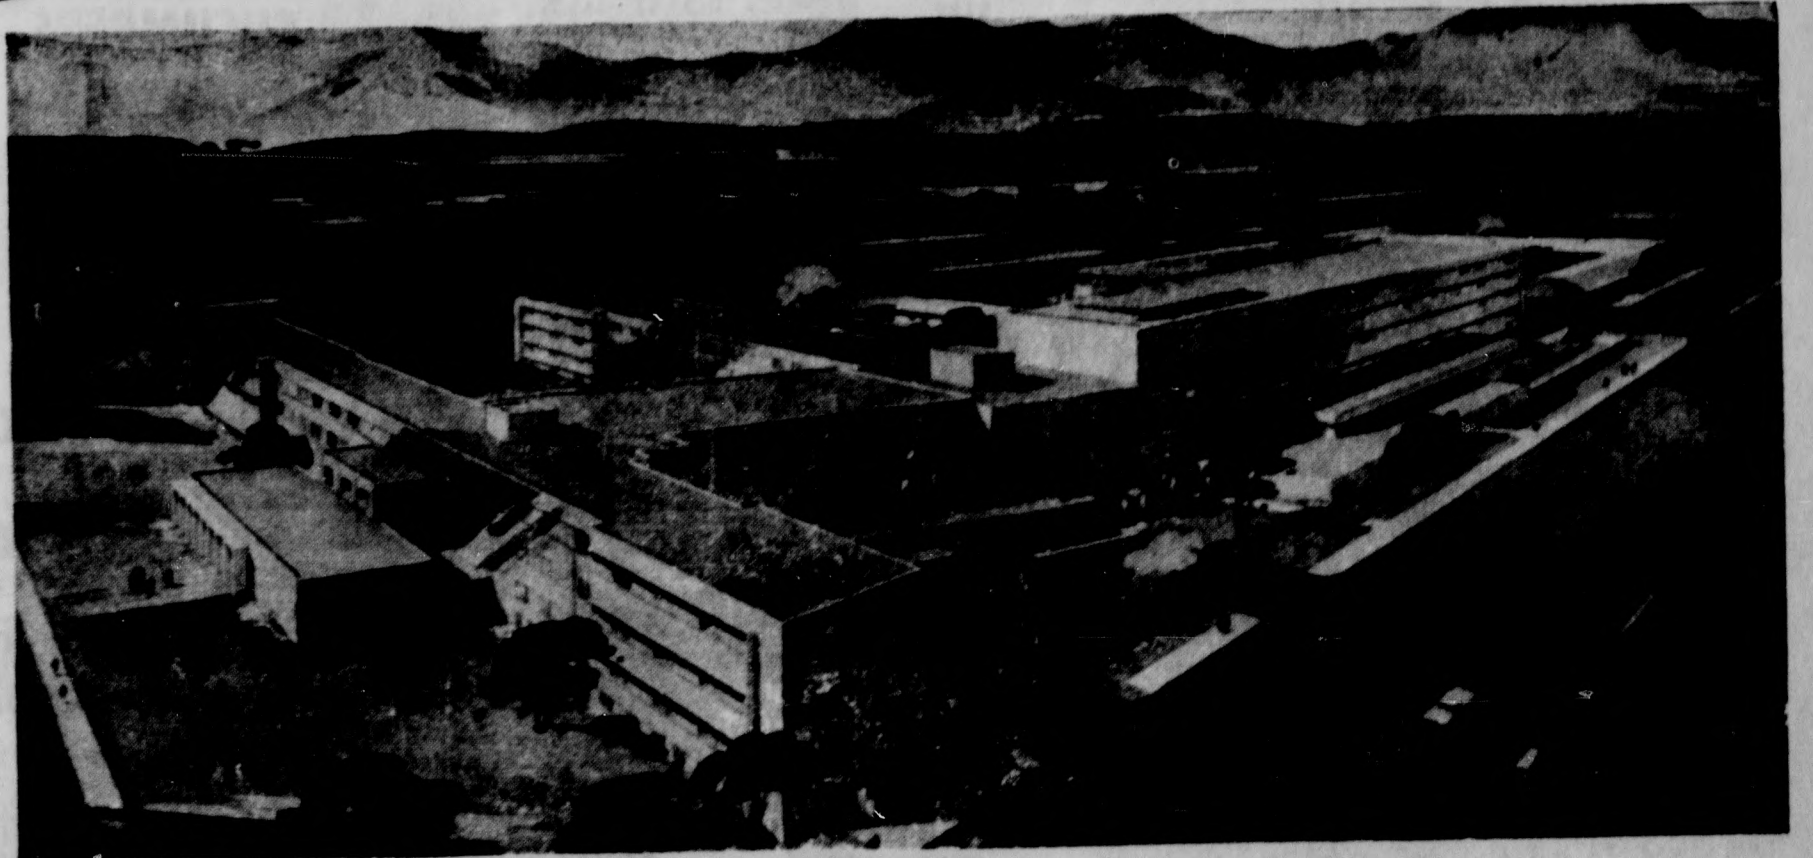

We are accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, the highest national authority on standards of hospital care. This is your best assurance that physicians, nurses and others attending you are capable, conscientious, and acting within the well-defined limits of their professional competence.

We are a member of the American, Western, and California Hospital Associations, the hospital Council of Southern California, and the Pomona Chamber of Commerce.

Y Benefactors Lunch Guests

YMCA benefactors who have contributed $100 or more to the Pomona "Y" during the past year will be guests of honor at an acknowledgement luncheon Wednesday, June 25, at Orlando's, Dwile A. Heggen, the "Y" manager, announced today.

Host to the "Century Club" members will be Wilson H. Adel, president of Inland Bank, who is sponsoring the lunch-

Richard Harold Houts Heads Co. Fire Dept.

Richard Harold Houts, 45, was appointed Chief Engineer of the County of Los Angeles Fire Department and the County's Forester and Fire Warden, effective July 1.

Chief Houts placed first on a competitive Civil Service examination. He replaces Keith E. Klingner, who announced his resignation on April 8 because of a heart condition.

As County Fire Chief, Chief Houts also will serve as the Fire Chief ment. The Department is the largest county fire fighting agency in the world, protecting nearly 2 million people in over 2,000 square miles. The Department presently has 113 fire stations, and a force of 2,500 men.

Houts, a resident of West Covina, joined the Department on April 12, 1942. He served in the US Army Air Corps from 1944 to 1946, and returned to fire duty. He was promoted to fire prevention inspector in 1948, division assistant chief in 1965, and to division chief in 1967. He has headed the Department's Services Division for two years.

He has attended the USC Fire Administration Institute, and completed numerous courses in fire science and administration.

Chief Houts and his wife, Audrey, have three children, Steven, 23, Claudia, 24, and Gary 15.

"I will work closely with the elected and ap-and with the men of this department in order that we can continue to meet the needs of the citizens we are dedicated to serve," said Chief Houts.

ITEM: The original label Teflon on cookware is a registered trademark, concerns measurements of adhesion, thickness, nonstick properties, and other characteristics of the coating. Many manufacturers are using and will continue to use this label on their products.

ITEM: Modern paints make things easier for the do-it-yourselfer—but some of them need to be applied just a little bit differently. Read the label before you paint.

Census Takers Hopeful Of 110 Degree Temperatures

Daytime temperatures of 110 degrees or higher in the southeastern California desert June 20 through 22 is the hope of the Department of Fish and Game.

Some 25 DFG men and 100 carefully selected volunteers will spend those three days in the first-ever simultaneous count of bighorn sheep in 13 desert mountain ranges. The count will be from blinds at 90 separate waterholes scattered from the Kingston Mountains east of Death Valley south to the Inyo mountains on the Mexican border.

"It has to be blistering hot if we are to succeed, and it has to work this time because we'll never get anybody to do it again," says DFG wildlife manager Richard Weaver, coordinator of the project.

On Thursday, June 19, the census takers will hike in to their assigned waterholes after getting as close as they can with four-wheel-drive vehicles. Some will have to hike up to two miles, carrying food, water and minimum camping gear for four nights and three days at their sites.

"And that's a long way in the summer heat of those rugged desert canyons," notes Weaver.

Eight of the counters will be taken by helicopter to waterholes too remote to be reached on foot at this time of year.

The census takers will camp, either alone or in pairs, within a walking commute from the waterholes they will watch constantly during the daylight hours. The bighorn tally will be made Friday, Saturday and Sunday and the counters will hike back out to their vehicles on Monday morning, June 23.

From dawn to dark on all three days of the count, a DFG plane will be used in a constant check from the air on the well being of the far-flung census takers. Each of the waterhole watchers will have a signal panel to display in the event of an emergency.

The volunteer census takers were selected from desert wise members of such groups as the Southern Council of Conservation Clubs, the Audubon Society, the Sierra Club and the Society for the Conservation of Bighorn Sheep.

This month's simultaneous count at the water-holes is a part of the desert bighorn study requested by the State legislature in 1968. Senate Resolution 43 directed the Department of Fish and Game to investigate and report on the current status of bighorn sheep in California, and to evolve a total management plan for the species.

The DFG is now determining where the sheep are, where they are not, and estimating their population by geographic area. The end product will be a plan to increase bighorn numbers through water development, their reintroduction into suitable ranges, and controlled land use.

Although the bighorn once roamed the length of California and has been fully protected by State law since 1873, these unique wilderness animals disappeared from northern California in the 1920's. The encroachment of man and the bighorn's intolerance to diseases introduced by domestic sheep are blamed.

The remaining bighorn populations are centered in southern California's desert mountains and Santa Rosa, San Jacinto and San Gabriel ranges.

Don Rickles, At Melodyland

Kaye Stevens will be Don Rickles' special guest star at Melodyland when the insult comic presents his night club act there June 27-29.

The vivacious singer-comedienne will appear in all five performances with Rickles: 8:30 p.m. that Friday, 7 and 10 Saturday night and at 5 and 8:30 p.m. Sunday, June 29.

Tickets for the Rickles show are available now at the Melodyland boxoffice, by mail and at all agencies.

Mrs. Dorothy Hawk To Head PV Community Concert Assoc.

Mrs. Dorothy Hawk of San Dimas has been named president of the newly formed Pomona Valley Community Concert Association.

The boards of directors of the Ontario-Upland and Pomona community concert associations, which joined to form the new organization, installed Mrs. Hawk and other officers at a recent meeting. Dr. Benton Gaskell, associate minister of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, was the installing officer. Taking office with Mrs. Hawk were Frank Cumming, Pomona, first vice president; Joseph Gen-dron, third vice president; Mrs. Bruce Claffin, Upland, secretary; and Fred Freehling, Alta Loma, treasurer.

Other officers named were Robert L. Jones, Ontario, concert manager; Harold Knight, Montclair, assistant concert manager; Mrs. Stuart Brockway, Ontario, campaign secretary; and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, Ontario, dinner chairman.

Mrs. Hawk, prominent contralto, has been soloist at Pomona's Pilgrim Congregational Church for more than 20 years. She is a soloist with the LaVerne Choral Belles and first vice president of the Musicians Club of Pomona Valley. She is past president of the San Dimas Women's Club, the Coordinating Council, and the McKinley Home for Boys. She is also active in the Girl Scout program.

The installation meeting was presided over by Stuart Hall, district manager of the Southern California Community Concerts. He announced that the Pomona Valley Community Concert Association has more than 1,200 members.

Five concerts are guaranteed for the 1969-70 season: The New York Lyric Quartet, Nov. 1; Korean violinist Kyung Wha Chung, Nov. 11; the Vienna Academy Chorus, Feb. 3; the Lee Evans Jazz Trio, March 9; and Gold and Fisdale, duo - pianist, March 23.

All concerts will be presented in the auditorium of the new Ontario High School, 901 W. Francis st. Ample free parking is provided.

PV Transcribers Guild Awards New Certificate

At a recent luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Kelber the following received certificates from the Pomona Valley Transcribers Guild having completed 9 months of study of Braille.

Lorraine Wilcox, 4752 Chamber avenue, La Verne.

The PVTG is a group of volunteers who transcribe inkprint into Braille for the blind. In addition, large print typing is done for the partially seeing. Several members are also tape recording. Requests are filled for any type of reading material. The Guild was formed several years ago to provide children in the Newman School in Chino with reading materials. Newman has a special program for the visually handicapped and many of the text books and special reading materials are provided by volunteers from the Guild.

In addition, when not working on specific assignments pleasure reading books were done and placed in the Ontario Public Library, 215 East "C" street in Ontario—one of ten public libraries in the United States having reading material for the visually handicapped. One does not have to be a resident of Ontario to check out the reading material, a library card being the only requirement.

Available are books in Braille as well as large print.

The Guild welcomes suggestions for reading material from those with visual problems. Any questions will be answered by Mrs. William Beckley in Montclair, Phone 624-4045 and Mrs. E.W. Rehkop, Mt. Baldy, phone 985-1254 or Mrs. Claud Culbert in Ontario phone 986-8651.

COOKING CONVENIENCE - Vacationers at Camp Edison-Shaver Lake can "rough it" as well as enjoy the conveniences of electric appliances. Developed by Southern California Edison Company, the all-electric camp opened to the public on June 18.

All-Electric Trailer, Tent Site Open At Shaver Lake

Camp Edison - Shaver Lake, an all-electric trailer and tent campsite developed by Southern California Edison Company in the High Sierra, opened for the summer session Wednesday, June 18.

The 200-acre facility, located just off Highway 168 about 50 miles north-east of Fresno, contains 50 trailer sites (trailers limited to 30 feet in length) and 50 tent sites.

V. F. Martin, Edison district manager, noted that electric outlets are provided at every site, and electric cooking centers, with built-in equipment, are provided throughout the camp.

"After vacationers and fishermen 'rough it' for a day in the great outdoors, they may return to Camp Edison - Shaver Lake to plug in their various 'camping comforts' ranging from electric blankets to rotisseries," he said.

The camping fee, a nominal $1.00 per night per car, covers the use of all facilities such as electricity, water, fire-wood, electric cooking units, showers and dressing rooms, washrooms, laundry facilities and modern restrooms.

All campsites are signed on a first-come, first-served basis, and there is a two-week limit on their use. No advance deposits or reservations may be made, he said.

"If the camp is full when you arrive, you will be directed to other campgrounds in the area. At the same time, your name will be placed on a priority list, from which vacancies will be filled each day in the order of registration," he added.

The Edison official noted that due to the heavy snows this year, Shaver Lake soon will be filled to capacity and will be ideal for boating, water skiing and fishing. In addition, the lake will be periodically stocked with trout.

Spain Trying To Catch Up With 20th Century--DWR

By Donald W. Reynolds

MADRID, SPAIN: Spain is an enigma. Or perhaps it is more meaningful to say that this former world power is having difficulty in catching up with the 20th century.

While Madrid is by no means a new city, it is strictly a Johnny come lately in comparison to the other European national capitals of Paris, London and Rome. The main boulevards are wide, the public buildings impressive, the power plants and water supply superb. The physical legacies of the last of the Hapsburgs contribute to making this inland city a pleasant place to visit.

But it is obvious that the hand of the last of the world's true dictators is becoming more feeble as he approaches his 80th birthday. Franco, the original contemporary and friend of Hitler and Mussolini, came to power more than 30 years ago, while DeGaulle was an inconspicuous minor officer in the French army and Nixon had barely finished law school. As the Generalissimo mellows, history will perhaps treat him more kindly as the only ruler to stop Communism cold in actual war while he united a proud people after a civil war even more devastating than our own.

Spain, in less than a 100 years, lost an empire, with the final push being given by the United States in 1898. It is small wonder that history-minded Spaniards have little sympathy with our problems in Cuba and our involvement in the Orient that started when Dewey sailed into Manila Bay.

And the present armed revolution that is going on in some of our most prestigious universities recalls the adolescent cheers we gave the ill-fated and worse-manned "Lincoln Battalion" as the "liberators", armed trained and equipped by us, sailed from New York to come to the aid of the Spanish Communists. Their end was just as disastrous as our more recent fiasco at the Bay of Pigs. And while it has never been proven, many Falangists today think that our so-called liberals were encouraged by the fore runner of our present C.I.A. So Spanish antagonism against the United States runs deep and today's quarreling over military bases is almost a normal state of affairs.

Meanwhile conditions apparently slowly improve in the Iberian peninsula. Poverty, while existing, isn't as obvious to the casual observer and the Spanish worker continues his long work week, outwardly content. The unions are state-controlled, a majority of the representatives are appointed rather than elected and the average man has little to say as to how he is governed. More than a generation has reached maturity knowing no other life and apparently doing well.

Tourism has doubled and redoubled in the last few years. Spain is no longer the bargain basement of Europe and food and lodging are rapidly approaching the costs in the United States. It is wise to add your restaurant bill, count your change and be careful that the taxi bandits take you direct to your ordered destination. The drivers give the non-speaking Spanish passenger the same consideration a non-English speaking passenger gets from our own hackies.

The country is much cleaner than most of our Latin-American neighbors to the South and joins Mexico in having one of the most stable governments in the world during the last 30 years—no assassinations, no real riots and no wars. Perhaps there is an idea here.

Earn While You Learn Program

Earn while you learn to become a teacher of mathematics in the inner-city junior high schools of Los Angeles.

That is the proposition being offered by the University of Southern California's School of Education which is sponsoring a unique 11-week summer institute for persons who already have a bachelor's degree but no teaching credential and possibly little or no orientation toward mathematics. June 30 is the opening date for the institute.

In cooperation with the U.S. Office of Education and under the terms of the Education Professions Development Act, USC will train people to qualify as intern teachers of mathematics who can be employed fulltime beginning with the fall school term.

Persons admitted for training will receive $75 per week, plus $15 for each dependent and will not be charged for either tuition or fees.

Each one who successfully completes the summer work will earn an Internship Teaching Credential necessary for fulltime employment at 5/6th of the amount paid a fully accredited teacher. Completion of further work during the fall and spring semesters will provide a full teaching credential and full pay can begin as early as the spring semester.

During the summer institute, participants will earn 12 semester units of credit: five units in methods and student teaching in secondary school mathematics, four units in mathematics and three in educational sociology.

Summer classes will run from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. five days each week. Concurrent employment will disqualify applicants for institute participation.

For applications or further information prospective applicants should contact Mr. Markert in room 1004 of USC's Waite Phillips Hall of Education or phone 746-2930 or 746-6268.

Earl Sicosky Memorial Fund Receives Help

ALTA LOMA -- The Earl (Si) Sicosky Memorial Scholarship Fund got a head start when the Chaffey college Merchandising club donated $50 to the cause.

The donation from the student group is the first to the scholarship fund from an organization and represents a twentieth of the $1000 goal.

Sicosky, athletic trainer here for 23 years, died June 3 after his return to duty following a prolonged illness.

The Chaffey athletic department announced June 11 that it was establishing the scholarship fund in Sicosky's name. The scholarship will go each year to the outstanding scholar-athlete at the college.

Barney Newlee, athletic director and division chairman here, described Sicosky as an athlete's athlete and far more than just an excellent trainer. "Si was a counselor to Chaffey athletes, both past and present, and devoted his life to serving them," Newlee said.

Contributions to the Earl Sicosky Memorial Fund, small or large by individuals or organizations, may be sent to the Chaffey College Bookstore, 5885 Haven ave., Alta Loma, 91701.

A fund of $1000 would allow the presentation of a $100 scholarship as a yearly tribute to the memory of a man who was dearly loved in these parts.

Ontario-Pomona Area Booming Industrially

POMONA - Employment growth rates in the key Pomona Valley labor markets, Pomona and Ontario, on the basis of latest available figures, continue to outpace those of booming Los Angeles County as well as those of the state and the nation.

The quarterly Economic Review of the Inland Bank, the Pomona Valley Independent, made this analysis in an in-depth study of the two basic regions now undergoing extensive transformation from their historically agricultural base.

The review, made public by the bank's President, Wilson H. Asdel, shows the Ontario Community labor market gaining in total employment at the annual rate of 7.7 per cent and in manufacturing employment at an even higher rate of 8.6 per cent.

Pomona's older and more stable economy, the report said, grew at a total employment rate of 5.7 per cent and a manufacturing employment rate of 5.3 per cent during the same eight-year period, from 1960 to 1968.

This compared with total employment growth rates of 2.9 per cent for Los Angeles County, 3.6 per cent for California and 1.7 per cent in the US manufacturing employment growth rates were 2.0 per cent for Los Angeles County, 2.9 per cent for California and 2.1 per cent for the nation as a whole.

The projections were over an eight year period, from 1960 to 1968, and the bank economist who made them, Dr. Gerhard N. Rostvold of Claremont, indicated that except for minor variations they would probably hold true today.

"These comparative growth rates," said Dr. Rostvold, "lead to the conclusion that the Ontario labor market area is in the process of transition toward a more highly intensified industrial base."

Dr. Rostvold termed Ontario's intensified growth in manufacturing employment over such nonbasic lines as trade, finance, services, etc. as "an earmark of a young, emerging local economy."

On the other hand, the Pomona labor market which represents 57.7 per cent or 56,100 of the approximately 100,000 jobs in the Pomona Valley, is becoming more oriented toward service and government activities, according to the review.

Services provided 14.4 per cent of total employment in 1960 and 20.3 per cent in 1968. Government employment grew from 14.2 per cent to 18.0 per cent in the same period.

Manufacturing added 6,150 new jobs to the Pomona area economy for an increase of 52.3 per cent. Service industries added 6,200 new jobs, an increase of 119.2 per cent, while government employment grew by 5,000 jobs or 98.0 per cent.

Dr. Rostvold concluded that the highly manufacturing intensive employment base of the Pomona economy is broadening into such supportive fields as services and government. The conclusion, he said, is further supported by the ratio of manufacturing to nonbasic employment. The ratio was 1 to 2.00 in 1960. It stood at 1 to 2.12 by 1968.

The economist foresaw a coming decade of healthy economic competition between Pomona and Ontario regions in the area of manufacturing employment.

The Pomona community labor market was defined by the Inland Bank review as including Pomona, Claremont, La Verne, San Dimas, Walnut and Diamond Bar. The Ontario community for purpose of the study included Ontario, Upland, Montclair, Chino and Cucamonga.

Teenager Rebellion Described In Booklet

Teenagers rebel as "a reaction of frustration to the failure of society to make a reasonable and sensible and appropriate place for them" according to a famed psychiatrist in a report released today by Blue Cross of Southern California.

Dr. Roy W. Menninger, president of the Menninger Foundation, explores the causes of youth's rebellion in the Blue Cross Report, "Adolescence for Adults."

"This book was written about people under 30 by people who know what's happening on both sides," according to Blue Cross public affairs vice president, Raymond B. Finan. The report, which includes essays by Dr. Menninger, historian Arthur Schlesinger Jr., author and social critic Tom Wolfe, humorist Russell Baker, and Yale psychologist Kenneth Keniston, among others, asks, "Are there insights into adolescence which can help adults act like adults toward young people?"

"It is designed to help adults understand today's adolescents, and to help adolescents better understand themselves," Finan noted.

"We feel that public health education begins with understanding the problem, listening to it and talking it out," he explained.

"Because we are a community service organization, we have a public responsibility to become involved with the problems of our communities."

The involvement of Blue Cross nationally is reflected in the fact that its health care services provide coverage for nearly 23 million youths.

opens with this observation by Dr. Menninger: "I think we have failed our youth, by having failed to listen, or if to listen, failed to hear."

Dr. Menninger discusses the starkness of social isolation for a 15-year old: "Except for going to school, virtually nothing he can do is legal. He can't quit school, he can't work, he can't drink, he can't smoke, he can't drive except to and from school, he can't marry, he can't vote, he can't enlist, he can't gamble. He cannot...participate in any of the adult virtues, vices or activities."

Dr. Menninger cites some meaningful statistics as evidence that teenage trouble are manifold. "Did you know that one out of every 6 teenagers becomes pregnant out of wedlock? Did you know that one-third to one-half of all teenage marriages are prefaced by illegitimate pregnancy? Or that the number of unwed mothers under 18 has doubled since 1940. Did you know that one teenage marriage in every two ends in divorce within five years? And that forty per cent of all women who walk down the aisle today are between 15 and 18?"

"We need to take a harder look," explains Dr. Menninger, "at the extent to which our society has denied the adolescent the room he needs to experiment, to participate, to engage, and to involve himself in the fabric of real living."

"We need to consider how we can enable our youth to participate legitimately in the social issues of our time, struggle with the real problems of racial prejudice, social and economic de-

W. R. SHADOFF 31 YEARS IN POMONA

the Amazing $2094 Valiant

We've Cut the Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price $193. Same Car. New Price

Valiant is small enough to give you the economy and handling you're looking for. Big enough for comfort and stability. And for only another $99—more of what you want. More interior room. More luggage space. More horsepower. And fuel economy. Like 23.5 mpg in the '69 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials. More comfort, better handling and stability from a longer wheelbase, wider front track, bigger tires and torsion-bar front suspension. More stopping power from bigger brakes. And standard equipment like all-vinyl interior, inside day/night mirror and seat belt retractor. Proven reliability built by Chrysler Corporation engineering know-how. And Valiant is a proven favorite around the world. In fact it is the largest selling U.S. nameplate outside the U.S. and Canada. A pretty good endorsement from people who need transportation tough enough for rugged roads for a small difference in price, see the added assurance of proven high resale value, and the backing of Chrysler Corporation's 12 month/12,000 mile warranty on the entire vehicle (excluding tires) and the five year/50,000 mile power train warranty. So if you're looking for a lot more car for a small difference in price, see Shadoff! See Shadoff for Details.
